

WAHPC Board Calls for Nominations

WAHPC Mission: Founded in 1985, the Wisconsin Association of Historic Preservation Commissions, Inc. (WAHPC) is a non-stock, not for profit Wisconsin corporation, formally affiliated with the Wisconsin Historical Society. WAHPC connects the work of local historic preservation commissions with broader preservation trends. By serving as a clearinghouse, WAHPC also provides relevant and timely information to organizations, communities, and individuals that engage in local preservation efforts.

Expectations for WAHPC board candidates:

- 1) Membership in WAHPC
- 2) Participation in at least 6 (1-2 hour) conference calls per year
- 3) Attendance at the annual spring conference
- 4) In person attendance at conference site planning meeting
- 5) Access to email and willingness to participate on various committees as appointed

The Nominating Committee of the WAHPC Board of Directors seeks nominees for election to the Board. Voting members of WAHPC may suggest a candidate for board service by submitting the candidate's name and a brief resume. Please print this form and bring it with you to the Conference.

Three-year terms begin on the date/time of election.

Gene Hackbarth
WAHPC Board President
920.227.7878

Nomination Form

WAHPC Member Name _____

Name of Local Municipality _____

Mailing Address _____

Email Address _____